Reading Contest at EES

In observance of National Young Readers Week the students at Evarts Elementary School recently participated in an AR reading contest in which the 1st through 4th grade students read a total of 1,793 books. Pictured at right, Mrs. Begley's 3rd grade class read the most books passing a total of 639 accelerated reader tests.

Science Program at EES

Mobile Ed Productions recently visited Evarts Elementary School to present a science program sponsored by the Evarts Elementary FRYSC. The program, "Crime Scene Science" was devoted to introducing students to the exciting field of the science behind solving crimes. The students were exposed to important aspects of critical thinking, essential not only in the Scientific Method but in all forms of problem solving. The program showed the students that this field actually draws from all forms of science. Chemistry, physics, and biology were all discussed through a variety of demonstrations involving lots of audience participation.
