Fitness Fair at EES

Third, fourth and fifth graders at Evarts Elementary recently participated in a Fitness Fair co-sponsored by Harlan ARH, Harlan County extension Office, PE Teacher Jeff Wilson and the Evarts Elementary FRYSC. Students had their BMI and physical attributes tested during the event. They also learned about the importance of physical activity and healthy eating as part of the event.

Authors visit EES

On Friday, October 25, Darla Saylor, author of the 'Harlan County Haunts' series and Thelma Hayley, co-author of 'Mystic Mountains' visited Evarts Elementary School. Saylor and Hayley met with the middle school students to talk to them about the process of writing a novel and the career opportunities available with writing. They also spent some time sharing stories from their books with the students as well as showing some of the relics they have collected for their stories.
