

Students in Kindergarten at Cumberland Elementary recently participated in making Gingerbread Houses. Each year Kindergarten students along with a parent or adult helper make Gingerbread Houses in the school's cafeteria. The Gingerbread Houses are then displayed in the school's display case for all to see who enter the building. Teachers and students both look forward to this event every year. Gingerbread houses are made from milk cartons, icing, graham crackers and are then decorated with candy!

