

Wednesday Mrs. Megan Saylor's Kindergarten class at Cumberland Elementary participated in a pumpkin investigation! After visiting a pumpkin patch on a field trip Tuesday, students measured their class pumpkin to see how many cubes tall it was, counted and compared numbers of seeds, helped clean out the pumpkin, made predictions if the pumpkin would sink or float then put their predictions to the test and found out pumpkins actually float!

