

Harlan County Schools Superintendent Brent Roark recently presented awards to the district's nine schools for their students' performance on the KPREP assessment. Principals received certificates for the various areas of assessments and for surpassing the state averages in those areas. Also attending the presentation was Harlan County Board of Education Member Brenda Henson. Shown here, from the left, are Roark, Henson, Black Mountain Principal Bonnie Lefevers, Cawood Elementary Principal Melinda Sergent, Cumberland Principal Sheila Hall, Harlan County High Principal Edna Burkhart, Evarts Elementary Principal Sherry Anglian, Green Hills Guidance Counselor Lisa Ashley, James A. Cawood Elementary Principal John Carter, Rosspoint Principal Bryan Howard and Wallins Principal Stan Nicely. Congratulations to each principal and the success demonstrated by their students on the latest KPREP Assessments.
