

Harlan County High School senior Dacey Bailey has been honored by the Harlan County Board of Education for her recent performance on the ACT.

Bailey earned a perfect 36 score in reading on the ACT assessment when taken with her fellow students at Harlan County High School last March.

Bailey is an award winning member of the HCHS academic team, tennis team, soccer team, National Honor Society and Beta Club.

The daughter of Brad and Jackie Fouts, she plans to attend Bellarmine University. Her career goal is to become a lawyer.

Here, Bailey receives an award recognizing her ACT success from Harlan County Schools Superintendent Brent Roark.
