

Students in Misty Hill's fourth and fifth grade classes at Wallins Elementary School recreated the phases of the eclipse with Oreos. Students discussed the eclipse in preparation for this afternoon's big event.

