

Harlan County High School dual credit students visited the University of Kentucky campus in Lexington and the Eastern Kentucky University campus in Richmond on Thursday. Students toured the campuses and learned about the enrollment process, housing and other important topics.

